

Methodology for the Competition of internships offered in collaboration UVT - social partners in the framework of "UNITA R&I focusing in rural and mountain territories needs in Cultural heritage, Renewable Energies and Circular Economy" in order to connect with the territories

Target group for the April 2023 competition: students from the UNITA European alliance (UBI, UNIZAR, UPPA, USMB, UniTo).

1. Objective of the call:

Connecting the UNITA alliance to the territories by offering internships in collaboration with universities and cultural or economic entities.

2. Eligibility criteria: Postgraduate or PhD students

3. Selection criteria

In the case of UNITA postgraduate internships, the UVT candidate selection process is based on the following criteria:

- the relevance of the candidate's professional background and educational qualifications for the field of the internship training (as reflected in the candidate's academic achievements)
- the growth potential of the candidate as a result of the internship program

4. The selection committee consists of the UVT academic tutor and the representative of the entity proposing the internship. The decision of this committee is final. At the end of the selection process, the academic tutor will prepare a letter of acceptance for the admitted candidates and a letter of non-acceptance for the rejected candidates.

5. Competition calendar: the period in which applications are received is: 01.04.2023 – 30.04.2023. The answer will be communicated by 05.06.2023.

6. Registration for the competition: According to the calls launched, applications will be submitted electronically at UNITA UVT Office: unita@e-uvt.ro, by sending the CV.

7. Facilities: Based on the letter of acceptance, candidates can request free accommodation in the UVT dormitories and reimbursement of round-trip transport expenses within the limit of 400 EURO. The request will be sent to the UNITA UVT office (unita@e-uvt.ro).

8. UNITA UVT department will ensure communication with the candidates.
